

PROGRAM REVIEW COMMITTEE – John Cotton, Chair

April 28, 2020

AY16

- Aviation – Review in fall or move to consider the program to be discontinued.

AY19

- Educational Studies – Graduate council approved. First reading.
- School of Rehabilitation and Communication Studies - Negotiating a review date for three separate programs aligned with accreditation. (Howard agreed to 3-separate reviews.)

AY20

- Applied Health Sciences and Wellness – Site visit suspended until fall due to coronavirus.
- Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering – Self-study received (April 24)
- Civil Engineering – Site visit suspended until fall due to coronavirus.
- Computer Science/Electrical Engineering – Site visit suspended until fall due to coronavirus.
- Mechanical Engineering – Chair response to review received. Dean report delayed due to my error.

AY 21

- College of Business – notified of upcoming review
- School of Communication Studies – notified of upcoming review
- Media Arts and Studies- notified of upcoming review
- School of Journalism - notified of upcoming review
- Mass Communication (joint Journalism and Media Arts) - notified of upcoming review
- Center for Law, Justice, and Culture - notified of upcoming review
- Learning Communities -- notified of upcoming review
- Individual Interdisciplinary Programs and Translational Biomedical Sciences – notified of upcoming review
- Engineering Technology – Lancaster- notified of upcoming review. No review AY 21. Will combine with ETM review as part of One Ohio.
- Honor's Tutorial College/Honors Program (delayed from AY18) -- notified of upcoming review
- Linguistics/ELIP/OPIE (follow up 16-17) – notified of upcoming review
- Human and Consumer Sciences Education (follow up 16-17) -- notified of upcoming review

Looking ahead to next year: 9 new, +2 follow up, +5 leftover (underlined) = 16 reviews