

Memo to UCC Programs Committee- Program Suspension

To: Cornelia (Connie) Patterson, Ph.D., UCC Programs Committee Chair
PCOE, Assistant Dean for Academic Engagement and Outreach

From: Beth VanDerveer, Ph.D., Human and Consumer Sciences Department Chairperson

This memo is to notify UCC that the Apparel, Textiles, and Merchandising program (MS6364) master's program, housed in the Department of Human and Consumer Sciences, is suspending admissions effective AY2020 - 2021.

There continued to be a persistent trend of insufficient enrollment in the Apparel, Textiles, and Merchandising program.

Faculty in the unit will be instructing undergraduate courses. The department will not be filling the tenure-track line that will be vacated beginning academic year 2021-22.
