

Sense of the Senate Resolution on Instructional Faculty Renewal

Faculty Senate

Professional Relations Committee

February 7, 2022

Second Reading

Whereas, Instructional Faculty serve an important role in the academic mission of Ohio University, and

Whereas, Instructional Faculty provide a significant share of credit hour delivery, and

Whereas, Instructional Faculty achieve merit-based promotions in rank, and

Whereas, Instructional Faculty have the expectation of multi-year, renewable contracts as provided for in the Faculty Handbook, and

Whereas, Instructional Faculty with multi-year contracts allows for stable curricular planning within and across academic units, and

Whereas, Instructional Faculty experienced nonrenewal (or non-reappointment) based on ad hoc criteria, and

Whereas, Instructional Faculty are distinct from Clinical and Fixed-term Contract Faculty,

Be it resolved, the Faculty Senate calls on each College and/or Academic Unit, and Regional Higher Education, to have the following:

- (1) A clearly articulated set of decision-making criteria regarding the offer of multi-year contracts for Instructional Faculty in compliance with the Faculty Handbook, and;
- (2) A clearly articulated set of decision-making criteria regarding the nonrenewal (or non-reappointment) of Instructional Faculty in compliance with the Faculty Handbook.
